

Grupo Televisa Announces Management Changes

Mexico City, July 19, 2021 - Grupo Televisa, S.A.B. ("Grupo Televisa", "Televisa" or the "Company"; NYSE:TV; BMV:TLEVISA CPO) announced that Carlos Ferreiro, current Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the Company, will step down on September 30th, 2021 to become Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of Univision Holdings Inc. ("Univision") effective October 1st, 2021. He will continue with this position for the combined company following the closing of the previously announced Televisa-Univision transaction.

Carlos Phillips, current Managing Director/Finance of Grupo Televisa, will become interim CFO of the Company after Mr. Ferreiro steps down. Mr. Phillips has held several positions in the finance group since he joined Televisa in 2019 and played a key role in the recently announced Televisa-Univision transaction. Previously, Mr. Phillips was an investment banker in New York, with nearly 20 years of experience at firms including JP Morgan, Goldman Sachs, BBVA and Itaú.

Messrs. Bernardo Gomez and Alfonso de Angoitia, Co-Chief Executive Officers of Grupo Televisa said: "We thank Carlos for his many valuable contributions to Televisa throughout these years. We are certain he will continue to perform an outstanding job as CFO of Univision. We are pleased to see Carlos remaining as part of the family. We also welcome Carlos Phillips as interim CFO. He is a very talented executive who will take on this new role and lead the exceptional financial team of Televisa".

Leopoldo Gomez, head of News at Televisa, is stepping down to become President, Univision Noticias to lead the News division. Gomez is a seasoned news executive, with proven business results and more than 20 years of experience leading a large and diversified news group in Mexico, the world's most populous Spanish-language market. Gomez has been awarded Mexico's Premio Nacional de Periodismo on two occasions and is the recipient of the Premio Ondas Iberoamericano de Radio y Television and the Premio Rey de España.

Daniel Badía, has been appointed head of News at Televisa following Mr. Gomez's departure. Mr. Badía holds a B.A. in business and a B.A. in law from Universidad Iberoamericana in Mexico, and a Master of Laws-LLM from New York University School of Law. Before joining Televisa as Managing Director of News, he worked at several law firms, including Sullivan & Cromwell LLP.

Grupo Televisa's Co-Chief Executive Officers said: "Leopoldo Gomez is a seasoned news executive, with proven business results and more than 20 years of experience. He redesigned and reorganized Televisa Noticias taking it to the highest professional, integrity and ethical levels. Leopoldo also led the transition to a new generation of journalists and anchors at Televisa Noticias. He has been the anchor and director of Mexico's highest rated weekly Public Affairs Analysis & Debate TV program, Tercer Grado. We thank Leopoldo for his invaluable dedication and contributions to Televisa throughout these years. We are confident that he will take Univision Noticias to the next level as President. We are delighted to see Leopoldo's appointment. We are certain that Daniel Badía will do an outstanding job as head of News at Televisa".
