PRESS RELEASE

The consolidated securities class action litigation against Televisa is dismissed with prejudice following court approval of the parties' stipulation of settlement

Mexico City, August 8, 2023 – Grupo Televisa, S.A.B. (“Televisa” or the “Company”; NYSE: TV; BMV:TLEVISA CPO) announced today that the consolidated securities class action lawsuit captioned In re Grupo Televisa Securities Litigation, Case No. 18 Civ. 1979 (LLS), which was pending against the Company and two other defendants in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, has been dismissed with prejudice following the court’s approval of the parties’ stipulation of settlement and entry of final judgment. The consolidated class action complaint was filed in 2018, as described in the Company’s Annual Report filed with the Mexican Stock Exchange and the Mexican Banking and Securities Commission, and its Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The stipulation of settlement provides a full release of all claims as described in the court’s order, and contains express denials of any fault, liability, wrongdoing or damages on the part of the defendants.

While Televisa continues to believe that the allegations in the case were without merit, it also believed that eliminating the distraction, expense and risk of continued litigation was in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

About Televisa

Grupo Televisa S.A.B. (“Televisa”) is a major telecommunications corporation which owns and operates one of the most significant cable companies as well as a leading direct-to-home satellite pay television system in Mexico. Televisa’s cable business offers integrated services, including video, high-speed data and voice to residential and commercial customers as well as managed services to domestic and international carriers. Televisa owns a majority interest in Sky, a leading direct-to-home satellite pay television system and broadband provider in Mexico, operating also in the Dominican Republic and Central America. Televisa holds a number of concessions by the Mexican government that authorizes it to broadcast programming over television stations for the signals of TelevisaUnivision, Inc. (“TelevisaUnivision”), and Televisa’s cable and DTH systems. In addition, Televisa is the largest shareholder of TelevisaUnivision, a leading media company producing, creating, and distributing Spanish-speaking content through several broadcast channels in Mexico, the US and over 50 countries through television networks, cable operators and over-the-top or “OTT” services. Televisa also has interests in magazine publishing and distribution, professional sports and live entertainment, and gaming.
