

IFT repeals Grupo Televisa's Determination of Substantial Power in the Market of Restricted Television and Audio Services

Mexico City, June 21, 2024 – Grupo Televisa, S.A.B. (“Televisa” or the “Company”; NYSE:TV; BMV:TLEVISA CPO) announced today it has been notified by the Mexican Institute of Telecommunications (Instituto Federal de Telecomunicaciones, or “IFT”) of the resolution through which such authority determined to repeal the determination that declared the Company, its concessionaires of restricted television and audio services (“STAR” for its acronym in Spanish) and other entities as Economic Agent with Substantial Power in 35 relevant markets of the STAR in Aguascalientes, Chihuahua, Mexico City, Estado de México, Jalisco, Nuevo León and San Luis Potosí. This, in compliance with the guidelines issued by a federal court.

With this resolution, a procedure initiated by the IFT to impose asymmetric measures to the Company and its subsidiaries has also been repealed, and the measures provided in the current regulations for these purposes are no longer applicable.

About Televisa

Grupo Televisa S.A.B. (“Televisa”) is a major telecommunications corporation which owns and operates one of the most significant cable companies as well as a leading direct-to-home satellite pay television system in Mexico. Televisa’s cable business offers integrated services, including video, high-speed data and voice to residential and commercial customers as well as managed services to domestic and international carriers. Televisa owns Sky, a leading direct-to-home satellite pay television system and broadband provider in Mexico. Televisa holds a number of concessions by the Mexican government that authorizes it to broadcast programming over television stations for the signals of TelevisaUnivision, Inc. (“TelevisaUnivision”), and Televisa’s cable and DTH systems. In addition, Televisa is the largest shareholder of TelevisaUnivision, a leading media company producing, creating, and distributing Spanish-speaking content through several broadcast channels in Mexico, the US and over 50 countries through television networks, cable operators and over-the-top or “OTT” services.
