FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mexico City, March 13, 2006—Grupo Televisa, S.A. ("Televisa"; NYSE:TV; BMV:TLEVISA CPO), today issued the following statement:

In response to press reports regarding Televisa's potential involvement in the process announced by Univision on February 8, 2006, we are in the early stages of analyzing different alternatives to determine what, if any, course of action makes sense for us. At this point, we are not participating in the process, and we have had no discussions or negotiations with Univision. In addition, we have no agreements with any third party to form a group or consortium.

Grupo Televisa, S.A., is the largest media company in the Spanish-speaking world and a major participant in the international entertainment business. It has interests in television production and broadcasting, production of pay television networks, international distribution of television programming, direct-to-home satellite services, publishing and publishing distribution, cable television, radio production and broadcasting, professional sports and live entertainment, feature film production and distribution, and the operation of a horizontal internet portal. Grupo Televisa also owns an unconsolidated equity stake in Univision, the leading Spanish-language media company in the United States.
